COMING UP

- Prayer Meeting on this week
7.30pm
- We have an ongoing collection for GLASS JARS in the hub, in particular smaller ones. If you could keep these and leave them, including lids, in to the Hub, Heather Currie would really appreciate it.
- We need to deliver Guides this week around the Finaghy area. No number of Guides delivered is too small. Thank you to all who delivered Guides and if you have any left over please return them to the office

A photograph of a church interior. A large, colorful stained glass window is the central focus, featuring geometric patterns in shades of red, yellow, green, and blue. To the left, a white screen is visible. To the right, a sign with a dove and the words 'PRINCE OF PEACE' is mounted on the wall. The overall lighting is soft and blue-toned.

True prayer is neither a mere mental exercise nor a vocal performance. It is far deeper than that
- it is spiritual transaction with the Creator of Heaven and Earth.

Charles Spurgeon

- Heavenly Father today we bring before you once again the homes in Erinvale, those in the Avenue, the Drive, the Gardens and the Park. We pray for our neighbours in these areas that they will be blessed as we approach the Easter season.
- We thank you for the visit today from the Moderator of PCI, Rt Revd Dr David Bruce to officially open our refurbished Sanctuary. We pray that you may be honoured in all that we do in it and that lives will be changed through hearing your word. We pray for the upcoming events for Easter and ask that we might know the reassurance that Jesus is King and hear you speak to us this special season.
- We pray that you will be with David and Zoe as they finish their second year in office as Moderator and wife and thank you for their faithfulness to the Presbyterian Church over the past two years. We pray for the moderator elect, Rev John Kirkpatrick, that you will equip him as he prepares to serve the Lord in this new role, encouraging the churches as they move forward from Covid.
- We remember the invasion of Ukraine as a desperately sad affair with complicated, largely psychological, reasons. The true horror is difficult for us to appreciate but those who were killed and those who have been displaced, with many forced to make treks into an unknown future, were and are people with the same thoughts and feelings as ourselves. Families have been split apart and many have been physically and psychologically damaged. Both sides have suffered and, it seems currently, there will be no winners. Only you God can bring calm as you once did to raging waters. We pray for your intervention and for your calm upon the cruelty. As you once promised, you will answer our prayers and so we pray with confidence for successful peace talks.
